授業概要 授業目的	This course is designed for beginner to low-intermediate students and will focus on spoken English. The goal of this course is to give students the opportunity to challenge their English ability in a positive environment while also building upon the fundamental skills of reading, hearing, and speaking. Basic grammar will be taught and reviewed over the duration of this course. Both individual and group projects will be assigned in this course. Students are expected to speak only English in this course!
到達目標	It is the goal of this class that each student complete the course with a basic ability to carry on English conversations. To help each student develop their ability ample time will be given in explanation of target language and practice with a partner or partners.
